

Shop online

Rosé on the Dancefloor (limited edition)

Year 2023

Denomination Rosato di Primitivo Salento IGP

Winery Tenute Eméra

Rosé on the Dancefloor celebrates a special friendship that touches the chords of Art. This fresh and lively, savory and long-lasting wine is born from Alessandra Quarta's desire to tell the story of Primitivo in a soft and gentle version, and combines with the arrival in Puglia of the pop star Sophie Ellis-Bextor (Murder on the Dancefloor, ed.)

VARIETY

8 Months in Stainless Steel YIELD: 90 Q/HA 100% Primitivo

TASTING NOTES AND PAIRINGS

A bright, pale pink color. The nose is inviting, with aromas of freshly picked cherries, pomegranate, wild strawberries, and raspberry. These aromas are enriched by hints of pink peppercorn and a tantalizing mineral note. The palate is fresh and pleasant, with a perfect balance of acidity and softness. This wine pairs perfectly with all meals and is ideal for aperitifs. We recommend enjoying it to the sound of your favorite hits!