

Shop online

CLAUDIO QUARTA
V I G N A I O L O

Rosé on the Dancefloor (limited edition)

Year
2023

Denomination
Rosato di
Primitivo
Salento IGP

Winery
Tenute Eméra

Rosé on the Dancefloor celebrates a special friendship that touches the chords of Art. This fresh and lively, savory and long-lasting wine is born from Alessandra Quarta's desire to tell the story of Primitivo in a soft and gentle version, and combines with the arrival in Puglia of the pop star Sophie Ellis-Bextor (Murder on the Dancefloor, ed.)

Alcohol
12.5%

Acid
5.9 g/L

Residual sugar
5.5 g/L

VARIETY

8 Months in Stainless Steel

YIELD: 90 Q/HA

100% Primitivo

TASTING NOTES AND PAIRINGS

A bright, pale pink color. The nose is inviting, with aromas of freshly picked cherries, pomegranate, wild strawberries, and raspberry. These aromas are enriched by hints of pink peppercorn and a tantalizing mineral note. The palate is fresh and pleasant, with a perfect balance of acidity and softness. This wine pairs perfectly with all meals and is ideal for aperitifs. We recommend enjoying it to the sound of your favorite hits!